

How to preview an article in progress?

Authoring Content

While you are writing a new article, you may often want to check what it would look like in your help center.

You can easily do so by clicking on the "Preview" (eye) icon which will appear at the top left corner of the page in the top bar as soon as you save a first draft version of the article you are writing.

