

Preview unpublished article

Build your help center

To preview unpublished article, open the article editor and click on the eye button in the top right corner of the page in the top-bar:

This will open the currently saved draft inside your help center for you to preview what the content would look like when published.

Make sure to click on the Save Draft button first if there any unsaved changes you would like to preview. Otherwise, the last saved version of the article will be prepared for preview.
